

Bio for Parwiz Mosamim

Mr. Parwiz Mosamim was born on March 21st, 1994 in Herat, Afghanistan. He holds a Master's Degree in the field of "Public Administration" from Universitas Padjadjaran in Indonesia, and an undergraduate degree in the field of "Journalism and Mass Communication" from Herat University in Afghanistan. Mr. Mosamim did a research fellowship through the ETH4D program at ETH Zurich from January to April 2021. His Master's Degree thesis concentrates on Afghan Women's Representation in Civil Service entitled "Representative Bureaucracy as Equal Opportunities: Afghan Women's Representation in Civil Service in the Post – Taliban". He has published some research articles in different journals.

Mr. Mosamim is also an Afghan journalist and has been working in different types of media networks including newspapers, radios, and TVs in Afghanistan and out. Besides, he is a young researcher in the ETH4D (ETH for Development) Program at ETH Zurich, a scholar of Yenching Global Symposium 2021, Youth Activist, Local Coordinator for South Asia Students for Liberty Organization, UNESCO – MGIEP & United Nations Alliance of Civilizations Alumnus, and one of the youth authors of the state of Preventing Violent Extremism report in South Asia.

Recently, Mr. Parwiz Mosamim is selected as a researcher in the Osgoode IFLS fellowship at York University. He will start his research journey with some other researchers from different corners of the globe from January to June 2022. We are extremely delighted to welcome him to this research fellowship and looking forward to contributing to his future research topic.