

‘Does the right to a fair trial
mean I must unveil?’

Source: Peter McCabe, Canadian Press

NIQAB on the STAND

JANUARY 11

12:30 – 2:30

IKB – Rm 2002

YOU'RE INVITED TO A PANEL DISCUSSION WITH COUNSEL TO the interveners in N.S. v. R.

Speakers will discuss and answer questions about their submissions to the Supreme Court of Canada.

Panelists include:

- Barbra Schlifer Commemorative Clinic - Rahool Agarwal, Norton Rose OR LLP
- Canadian Council on American-Islamic Relations - Mihad Fahmy
- Criminal Lawyers Association - Rebecca McConchie, Sack Goldblatt Mitchell LLP
- Muslim Canadian Congress - Tyler Hodgson, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP

Food will be provided!

N.S. v. R. is a case that was heard by the Supreme Court of Canada in December 2011. At issue is whether a sexual assault complainant can wear her niqab for religious reasons while testifying.